DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species I: The species wherein a magnetic element is imbedded in the material of the body of a doctor assembly.

Species II: The species wherein a magnetic element is imbedded in the material of a pressing element of a doctor assembly.

Species III: The species wherein a doctor blade of a doctor assembly comprises a magnetic material.

If applicant elects Species I or Species II, there are additional sub-species within these groups which must be considered.

Sub-Species A: The species in which a mechanism moves the magnetic element from a resting position to an active position by causing the active surface of the magnetic element to be raised from a sunken position to a position level with the supporting surface.

Sub-Species B: The species in which a mechanism moves the magnetic element from a resting position to an active position by turning the pieces from a position in which their polarities are cancelled to one in which their polarities add together.

Sub-Species C: The species in which the magnetic element comprises an electromagnetic connected to a power supply which can be selectively activated and deactivated.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species and sub-species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species I: 1-4, 11-13, 17-21

Sub-Species A: 12

Sub-Species B: 13

Sub-Species C: 17

Species II: 1, 5-10, 14-16, 18-21, 24

Sub-Species A: 15

Sub-Species B: 16

Sub-Species C: 24

Species III: 1, 22, 23

The following claim(s) are generic: 1.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: With regard to the main species, the location of the magnetic element is a special technical feature which is not the same for each species. With regard to the sub-species, the mechanism for activating and deactivating the magnetic attraction is a special technical feature which is not the same for each species.

A telephone call was made to applicant's representative to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jill E. Culler whose telephone number is (571)272-2159. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 10:00-6:00.
